APRIL 7, 2024 REFLECTION

As the Lenten season comes to an end, Christians worldwide prepare to celebrate one of the most sacred events of our faith: Easter. Beyond the colorful decorations and joyful gatherings, Easter holds unequalled significance as a time to reflect on and celebrate our central Christian belief.

At the heart of Easter lies the miracle of the resurrection, Jesus' victory over sin and death. All four Gospels record Jesus Christ being crucified and laid to rest in a tomb. They also recorded that three days later, that grave was empty, revealing the greatest miracle of all time, fulfilling the prophetic promises of scripture.

This history changing, world changing event forms the cornerstone of our faith.

Our faith is based on a living hope in a living person – Jesus of Nazareth – whom God raised from the dead in vindication of his atoning death on the cross through which we have forgiveness of sins, peace and reconciliation with God and hope of eternal life! This gives us joyful confidence in life and comfort and solace in death. As Paul reminds us so eloquently in his letter to the Romans, neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Christ is risen! Alleluia! There is reason to rejoice this Easter-and every day. But when rejoicing is harder, it's okay. We're only human; we feel sorrow just as Jesus did. The key? We must not stay there. There is no challenge too great for our Lord. There is no trial Jesus has not already born on the Cross. And there is no brokenness that cannot be redeemed by the Resurrection. Christ makes all things new.

Let Him make your heart new this Easter season. Let that joy permeate into every aspect of your life. When it's easy, praise Him. When it's hard, praise Him. Sing the hallelujah song loudly toward the God whose promises of eternal joy are trustworthy.
