MAY 26, 2024 GOSPEL

Reading of the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew (28, 16-20)

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

MAY 26, 2024 REFLECTION

Today's gospel reading recounts the Ascension of Jesus as recorded by Matthew. We just celebrated the Ascension of the Lord a week ago while still in the Easter season. Why, then, does this reading occur today? It is because of the explicit reference to the Trinity made by Jesus in some of His last words before ascending. Jesus instructed the Apostles to baptize in “the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” This directive is why baptisms still today are done with this exact Trinitarian formula being used. These words may seem familiar and simple enough but they are packed with meaning and mystery. They profess our fundamental belief that there is one God who exists in three distinct persons.

The Trinity can be a confusing doctrine of our faith. It is, in fact, what we call a mystery (i.e. something we cannot fully understand). This is because God is infinite and, therefore, beyond our finite comprehension. If we could fully understand God, then that would make us equal to or greater than God. Still, that doesn't mean we are totally in the dark. God has revealed Himself to us and the Church has preserved and sought to understand that revelation as best as possible. So, what can we know?

First, there is only one God. We profess this every time we begin the belief: “I believe in one God...” We do not worship three different Gods. Second, this one God is not solitary but is, in His essence, a communion of persons. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are all fully God. Third, these three persons are distinct from one another. The Father is not the same as the Son and the Son is not the same as the Holy Spirit, etc. Fourth, these three divine persons are one in substance. As we say in the creed, the Son is “consubstantial” (i.e. one in being) with the Father. Is your head spinning yet? Remember that the Trinity is a mystery. We're not supposed to fully grasp this truth, but we are called to have a relationship with the Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Trinity is a relationship of love and He invites you to be a part of that divine communion. Will you respond with a 'yes' to this divine invitation?
