FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CHRIST THE KING

JULY 7, 2024 GOSPEL

Reading of the Holy Gospel according to Saint Mark (6:1-6)

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples. When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him.

Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

REFLECTION

A lot of times, we see Jesus telling people that their faith has saved them. In a number of times, Jesus even said that a faith so small like the mustard seed can do great things. They say that God supplements our faith, so just a little amount would do. God fills up what we lack in terms of faith. However, in the gospel today, we see the power and importance of faith, ironically through the lack of it.

How had Jesus turned out to be so knowledgeable and such a powerful speaker? He was the son of a carpenter, not the son of a rabbi. Numerous individuals in his hometown discounted Jesus and His message. They refused to hear him out. After all, who did Jesus think He was to preach to the people who had known Him from birth? Jesus did not get angry. Rather, Jesus replied to their remarks by saying that normally a prophet is not honoured by the people who have known him from birth. Jesus realized that He simply was too familiar to them. They only saw in Him what they wanted to see. Thus Jesus was unable to perform any great deeds there as they did not have faith in Him.

We are challenged by God. We are asked to look at ourselves and see what our heart says. There is no need to doubt God. He is all loving and all powerful. We should always remember and believe this, no matter what situation we are in.

Is my faith strong, or am I like the people who do not trust in God? When we pray, do we really have complete faith in God and his love and power, or do we just pray just in case God hears us? Is our faith strong enough to be willing to suffer for God? When God does not seem to hear us, do we have a humble heart and will still continue to serve Him, or do we walk away from him when we don't get what we want?

May we work on our faith and build it, so we can have and develop a strong faith in God no matter what the situation may be.
