GOSPEL

Reading of the Holy Gospel according to Saint Mark ( 6:30-34)

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

JULY 21, 2024

REFLECTION

To his disciples, exhausted by all the unscripted coming and going of the crowds, Jesus said "Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while." This is the origin of the Christian practice of making a retreat: a lonely place, where we can drop our public mask, reflect on our life, and rest. I do it in a small way whenever I beam in on /Sacred Space/ and devote some time to just God and me.

This is a gospel story for people busy with caring for others. Jesus' desire for peace and quiet was disturbed by the crowds who needed him. This is an image of many parents and people in helping professions. We need rest and time to recharge the energy and love of the heart; but at times the needs of others will take over. Prayer can unite both - the prayer of our action and the prayer of love.

It is good, indeed essential, to go apart to a 'deserted' place from time to time to rest and feed one's heart by listening for the voice of God.

The human heart is restless. "Is this all there is?" Some assuage this human hunger by grasping for more and more money, fame, sex, power. To be fully human is to seek. We seek not just for food, facts or things, but for meaning. We want a purpose, a motive to go on. Jesus provides us with such a purpose.

We are too busy with so many things. We don't have time to 'smell the flowers.'" The gospel reminds us that we need time to rest. It acknowledges that when we go to our 'sacred space' we are refreshed, strengthened and inspired to go on. We can also find meaning in every situation.
