GOSPEL

Reading of the Holy Gospel according to Saint Mark (13:24-32)

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

REFLECTION

The Kingdom of God is a time. It happens whenever someone feeds a hungry person, or shelters a homeless person, or shows care to a neglected person. It happens whenever we correct an injustice or avert a conflict. It happens whenever people join in the struggle to overcome poverty, to erase ignorance, to pass on the Faith.

The Kingdom of God is in the past (in the life and work of Jesus of Nazareth); it is in the present (in the work of the Church and in the efforts of many others to create a world of goodness and justice); it is in the future (reaching its completion in the age to come).

The Kingdom of God is a condition. Its symptoms are love, justice, and peace. Jesus Christ is king! We pray today that God may free all the world to rejoice in his peace, to glory in his justice, to live in his love.

This is the challenge this Lord's Day brings as the Kingdom of God stands before each of us. That is, the way the Master trod when he reached out to the needy and outcasts in his journeys – he didn't do it alone and invited those with him to do the same. Let us never forget, that it was in these moments also that those in Jesus' company came to know that the reign of God was upon them!

Brothers and sisters, next Sunday, we will begin a new year of grace in the life of the Church with the First Sunday of Advent. The word "grace" is a reminder that it is God's gift to us; and it starts with calling to mind the hope the coming of the Christ brings to the world yesterday, today and tomorrow. The first candle on the Advent wreath signifies this "Hope" and is an invitation to reflect upon the hope that Jesus Christ brings and to become a hope-filled people in a darkened world.

This Christ the King Sunday, as we continue our celebration of the Eucharist, let us pray that God may draw our awareness to the people and places that benefited from our living out of the faith over the past year, and to those areas in which we can grow in the year ahead. Jesus, King of kings, reign in our hearts today and always. Amen!
