GOSPEL

Reading of the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke (1, 39-45)

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

REFLECTION

On the last Sunday of the year, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. We offer all the members of our own families on the altar for God's blessing.

These days, the Feast of the Holy Family is more a feast of God's great love and boundless mercy as children, parents, families struggle in a real and too often harsh world. And that makes it a challenge of a different sort. Measuring up, being perfect, has no part of it. Staying in the struggle does. Being open to love does. Making mistakes and creating reconciliation does. Having one's heart broken open does. That was what the Holy Family did.

Today's feast, and indeed, the entire feast bundle that makes up the Christmas season is a deeply human feast – and one that spills over to all of creation – offering the hope and the promise of God with us to everyone always. It's a feast of incredible courage. Its gift is the courage to keep on keeping on.

The Holy Family is a model of faithfulness. They were totally devoted to God and his call on their lives. And, they faithfully followed their God-given vocations.

We can see, then, the beautiful truth about the Holy Family: it is the Child Jesus who makes this family unique, and He is also the one who makes holiness possible for each of our own families.

We are all called to this holiness. God could have chosen other means for our salvation. Yet Jesus Christ came into the world as a child under the care of human parents.

It is the Holy Family that helps us to draw near to the salvation.
